ORDER IN APPEAL

100/34

The Principal Commissioner, Central Excise and Service Tax Bhavnagar (hereinafter referred to as "the appellant") has filed this appeal against the OIO No. R/84/2016 dated 13.01.2017 passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Service Tax Division, Bhavnagar (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority") in case of Executive Engineer, Saurashtra Branch Canal, Div. No.6/2, Surendranagar, Gujarat (hereinafter referred to as "the claimant").

2. Briefly stated, the facts are that Executive Engineer, Saurashtra Branch Canal, Div. No.6/2, Surendranagar holding Service Tax Registration No. AACCS6704LSD002, engaged in constructions services, Works Contracts Services, etc., had filed a refund claim of Rs.95,83,605/- received on 24.10.2016 for Service Tax paid for construction purpose on the basis of Section 101 of the Finance Act, 1994 [inserted vide Finance Act 2016] under which no Service Tax was levied or collected during the period 01.07.2012 to 29.01.2014 in respect of taxable services provided to a Government body for certain services including Construction Services. The Section also provided for Refund in case Service Tax has been collected if claimed within six months from the date on which Finance Bill 2016 receives assent of the President.

3. The above refund claim was scrutinized by the Service Tax Division, Surendranagar and was found to be lacking in documents and certain other technical queries. Accordingly, a query letter dated 16.11.2016 was issued to Executive Engineer, Saurashtra Branch Canal Surendranagar requesting to submit challans, signature verification proofs, self-certified copies of relevant work orders, etc. along with explanation that out of the refund claim of Rs.95,83,605/-, how was the claimant eligible for refund of interest of Rs.8,92,886/- paid by them. Certain queries were still pending after the receipt of their reply. Hence a Show Cause Notice dated 19.12.2016 was issued to the claimant communicating the pending queries like copies of relevant Work Orders with Certificate from authorised CAs showing co-relation between the work orders and the challans, reconciliation sheets for amount paid and relevant tax payment with supporting documents, computerized GAR-7 challans in support of their refund claim, etc. The Claimant was also granted PHs in which a query regarding how they were eligible for refund claim of amount paid under VCES was communicated. The claimant submitted their reply to the SCN while appearing in the PH and submitted some documents in support of their refund claim.

4. This said Notice was adjudicated vide OIO No. R/84/2016 dated 13.01.2017 by the Assistant Commissioner, Service Tax Division, Bhavnagar, wherein the Adjudicating Authority has sanctioned refund of Rs.72,53,384/-, eligible under provision of Section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944 as amended, made applicable to Service tax under Section 83 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with provisions of Section 101 of the Finance Act, 2016 and rejected the refund amount of Rs.20,82,000/- on account of amount paid under VCES and Rs.2,48,221/- on account of non-submission of challans / proof of payment of Service Tax.

5. The Department has filed this Appeal on the following grounds against the impugned order.

- that the refund claimed by the claimant under Section 101 of the Finance Act, 1994 is subject to verification of contents and other documents whereas while sanctioning the claim, the statutory records viz. ST-3 returns and Cenvat Credit account maintained by the claimant have not been verified so it cannot be ascertained whether Cenvat Credit has been availed and whether Service Tax has been actually paid or not. Moreover, the Contracts signed between the claimant and the Contractors have also not been verified to check whether the burden of tax has not been passed on to any other person.

- Scrutiny of service tax returns is also necessary as if the Cenvat Credit has been availed by the claimant, the same would become exempt vide Section 101 of the Finance Act, 1994. Hence the adjudicating authority has erred in considering the claimant admissible for refund of Service Tax amounting to Rs.63,60,498/-.
- that the claimant has filed claim for refund of interest amounting to Rs.8,92,886/- paid by them on the amount of Service tax which was not paid by them in time which has been sanctioned by relying on Section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944 and that the refund sanctioning authority has relied upon Section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944 being applicable in the instant case is not correct since the new Section 101 has been inserted specially for granting the retrospective effects as well as consequent benefits to that.
- that the provisions of Section 101 of the Finance Act, 1994 begin with non-obstante clause "Notwithstanding anything,...." which give overriding effect over any other provisions contained in Chapter V of the Finance Act, 1994, being independent to any other provisions. Hence only Section 101 of the Finance Act, 1994 is applicable in the instant case and not Section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944/-
- that sub-section (2) of Section 101 of the Finance Act, 1994 only uses the expression "refund shall be made of all such Service Tax" with reference to the exemption benefit under the said provision. The term "Interest" is nowhere mentioned in the concerned Section. It is a settled law that the meaning of any term in a taxing statute cannot be understood with reference to a similar term used in a different statute. Hence, the term "refund of interest" used in Section 11B of the C.Ex. Act, 1944 cannot be made applicable with reference to refund of Service tax under Section 101 of the Finance Act, 1994 which is a different enactment.
- The claimant of refund had not paid Service tax on time and had paid interest on the same. The payment of interest in this case is a penal action and there is no provision to refund the same as far as Section 101 of the Finance Act, 1994 is concerned.

6. The appeal was filed before the Commissioner (Appeals), Rajkot. The undersigned has been nominated as Commissioner (Appeals) / Appellate Authority as regards to the case of appellant vide Board's Order No. 05/2017-Service Tax dated 16.11.2017 issued by the Under Secretary (Service Tax), G.O.I, M.O.F, Deptt of Revenue, CBEC, Service Tax Wing on the basis of Board's Circular No. 208/6/2017-Service Tax dated 17.10.2017.

7. Personal hearing was held with the claimant on 27.02.2018 and their representative reiterated their submissions made earlier in this regard.

8. I have carefully gone through the facts of case, the grounds mentioned in the appeal and the submissions made by the appellant. The question to be decided in the appeal is whether the refund amounting to Rs. 72,53,384/- (Rs. 63,60,498/- + Rs. 8,92,886/- [interest on late payment of Service Tax]) sanctioned under provision of Section 11B of the Central Excise Act, 1944 as amended, made applicable to Service tax under Section 83 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with provisions of Section 101 of the Finance Act, 2016, vide the impugned order is eligible to the claimant or otherwise.

9. For ease of reference, Section 101 of the Finance Act, 2016 is reproduced below:

SECTION 101. Special provision for exemption in certain cases relating to construction of canal, dam, etc.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 66B, no service tax shall be levied or collected during the period commencing from the 1st day of July, 2012 and ending with the 29th day of January, 2014 (both days inclusive) in respect of taxable services provided to an authority or a board or any other body-

(i) set up by an Act of Parliament or a State Legislature; or

(ii) established by the Government, with ninety per cent. or more participation by way of equity or control, to carry out any function entrusted to a municipality under article 243W of the Constitution, by way of construction, erection, commissioning, installation, completion, fitting out, repair, maintenance, renovation or alteration of canal, dam or other irrigation works.

(2) Refund shall be made of all such service tax which has been collected but which would not have been so collected had sub-section (1) been in force at all material times. (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, an application for the claim of refund of service tax shall be made within a period of six months from the date on which the Finance Bill, 2016 receives the assent of the President.

10. In view of the above, I find that the refund claimed has been submitted with the concerned authority within the stipulated time of six months. And, the claimant has paid the Service Tax amount under Reverse Charge Mechanism hence, question of utilisation of Cenvat Credit towards payment of Service tax by GAR-7 Challans, as a recipient under RCM does not arise.

11. I also find that the claimant has submitted a certificate issued by M/s. Dhirubhai Shah & Doshi, C.As. that they have made payment of Service Tax under Reverse Charge Mechanism and have not claimed any credit on such payment of Service tax and the incidence of Service tax so paid by them has not been passed on to any other person. So, there is no question of unjust enrichment in the instant case.

12. As regards to the interest on Service tax paid by the claimant due to delayed payment of Service tax, I find that since Service tax is refundable in view of my above findings, interest is also refundable to the claimant.

13. With regard to the claimant's eligibility for the amount of refund rejected to the tune of Rs.20,82,000/- vide the impugned order, paid under VCES, I find that since this being a Departmental appeal limited to the extent of sanctioning of the refund claim amount of Rs.72,53,384/- to the claimant, I do not find discussion of this issue appropriate in this Order.

14. Accordingly, I find that the adjudicating authority has rightly sanctioned the refund amount of Rs.72,53,384/- to the Executive Engineer, Saurashtra Branch Canal, Surendranagar. The impugned order is accordingly upheld and the Appeal filed by the Department is hereby set aside. The appeal in the instant case is disposed of.
