:: ORDER IN APPEAL ::

M/s. Sagar Polytechnik Ltd., Unit-III, Plot No. 109-111, GIDC, Tal-Chotila, Bamanbore, Dist. Surendranagar (hereinafter referred to as 'Appellant') filed the present appeal against Order-in-Original No. 01/Demand/2018-19 dated 17.4.2018 (hereinafter referred as "the impugned order") passed by Assistant Commissioner, Central GST & Central Excise, Division - Surendrangar (hereinafter referred to as "the lower adjudicating authority").

2. The brief facts of the case are that the appellant provided information regarding availment and utilization of Cenvat credit of Service Tax paid on outward transportation of goods on being asked by the Range Superintendent. The scrutiny of information revealed that the appellant during the period from November-2015 to March-2017 availed Cenvat credit of service tax paid on outward transportation of the finished goods beyond the place of removal as per Para 2 of the impugned order. Show Cause Notice No. CE/BBR/Outward-GTA/Sagar/2015-16 dated 21.10.2015 was issued on 28.6.2017 to the appellant for recovery of wrongly availed Cenvat credit along with interest under Rule 14 of the Cenvat Credit Rules, 2004 (hereinafter referred to as "the CCR,2004") read with Section 11A of the Central Excise Act, 1944 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"). The demand of wrongly availed Cenvat credit was confirmed along with interest and penalty was also imposed under Rule 15(1) of the Cenvat Credit Rules, 2004 (hereinafter referred to as "the CCR") read with Section 11AC(1) of the Act by the lower adjudicating authority vide the impugned order.

3. Being aggrieved, the Appellant preferred present appeal on the grounds that the lower adjudicating authority has not considered their defense submissions to the Show Cause Notice; that audit was conducted during 2015-16; that they relied upon Para 8 of CBEC Circular No. 97/8/2007-ST dated 23.82007 and the decision in the case of Gujarat Ambuja Cements reported as 2007(6)STR249(Tri-D); that they relied upon Para 5 of CBEC Circular No. 988/12/2014 dated 20.20.2014 and decision of the Hon'ble CESTAT in the case of Vesuvious India Ltd. reported as 2014(34)STR26(Cal) and the Hon'ble High Court of Gujarat in the case of United Phosphorous Ltd. reported as 2016(46)STR762(Tri-Ahmd).

3.1 Regarding imposition of penalty under Rule 15(3) of the CCR the appellant submitted that element of fraud, collusion, mis-statement or suppression of facts, etc. is not present in this case and therefore, imposition of penalty is not justified and in support they relied upon the following case laws :-

(i)	Hindustan Steel Ltd.	1978 (2)ELT(J159)(SC);
(ii)	Wiptech Peripherals Pvt. Ltd.	2008(232)ELT621(Tri-Ahmd);
(iii)	Prem Fabricators	2010(250)ELT260(Tri-Ahmd);
(iii)	Gujarat Narmada Fertilizers C. Ltd.	2009 (240)ELT661(SC);
(iv)	Nestle India Ltd.	2009 (237)ELT102(SC);
(v)	Itel Industries Pvt. Ltd.	2004 (163)ELT219(Tri-Bang).

4. Personal hearing in the matter was attended on 18.4.2019 by Shri Balbhadra Jadeja, Manager(EXIM) of the appellant who reiterated the grounds of Appeal and submitted that their goods were delivered on FOR basis; that they have nothing more to add; that on query that whether outward transportation cost has been added to the assessable value of the goods for payment of duty, he could not reply and said that they would submit evidence to support this plea that outward transportation charge was added in the assessable value for payment of CE duty. The appellant vide their letter dated 25.4.2019 submitted copies of Contracts No. GWSSB/Mat.CELL/C/FQC/Ringfit UPVC Pipes/75-315/2015/2 dated 10.2.2015, No. GWSSB/Mat.CELL/C/FQC/HDPE(PE-100)Pipes/50-450/2015-9 dated 16.6.2015, No. GWSSB/Mat.CELL/C/FQC/Ringfit UPVC Pipes/63-315/2016/1 dated 27.5.2016 and No. SK/Refund Claim/01 of 2015-16 entered into with Gujarat Water Supply and Sewerage Board evidencing that their final products were cleared on FOR basis.

4.1 Personal hearing notices were sent to the Department, however, neither any reply/response came nor any one appeared during or after PH.

FINDINGS :-

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, the impugned order, the grounds of appeal and submissions made by Appellant during the personal hearing. The issue to be decided in this appeal is that whether the impugned order passed by the lower adjudicating authority disallowing Cenvat credit of Service Tax paid on Outward transportation is correct, legal and proper or not.

6. I find that definition of "input service" as provided during the relevant time under Rule 2(l) of Cenvat Credit Rules, 2004 reads as under:-

> "(l) "input service" means any service,-
> (i) used by a provider of taxable service for providing an output service; or
>
> (ii) used by the manufacturer, whether directly or indirectly, in or in relation to the manufacture of final products and clearance of final products upto the place of removal, > and includes services used in relation to setting up, modernization, renovation or repairs of a factory, premises of provider of output service or an office relating to such factory or premises, advertisement or sales promotion, market research, storage upto the place of removal, procurement of inputs, accounting, auditing, financing, recruitment and quality control, coaching and training, computer networking, credit rating, share registry, and security, inward transportation of inputs or capital goods and outward transportation upto the place of removal;".

6.1 From above, it is observed that "input service" means any service used by the manufacturer, whether directly or indirectly, in or in relation to manufacture of final products and clearance of final products upto the place of removal and outward transportation upto the place of removal. It is, therefore, evident that as per main clause - the service should be used by the manufacturer which has direct or indirect relation with the manufacture of final products and clearance of final products upto the place of removal and the inclusive clause restricts the outward transportation upto the place of removal.

6.2 The place of removal has been defined under Section 4(3)(c) of the Act which reads as under :-

> "place of removal" means a factory or any other place or premises of production or manufacture of excisable goods; a warehouse or any other place of premises wherein the excisable goods have been permitted to be stored without payment of duty or a depot, premises of a consignment agent or any other place or premises from where the excisable goods are to be sold.

7. I find that the issue is no more res integra and the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide judgment dated 01.02.2018 in the case of Ultratech Cement Ltd reported as 2018-TIOL-42-SC-CX has held as under :

> "4. As mentioned above, the assessee is involved in packing and clearing of cement. It is supposed to pay the service tax on the aforesaid services. At the same time, it is entitled to avail the benefit of Cenvat Credit in respect of any input service tax paid. In the instant case, input service tax was also paid on the outward transportation of the goods from factory to the customer's premises of which the assessee claimed the credit. The question is as to whether it can be treated as 'input service'.
> 5. 'Input service' is defined in Rule 2(l) of the Rules, 2004 which reads as under:
> "2(l) "input service" means any service:-
> (i) Used by a provider of taxable service for providing an output services; or
>
> (ii) Used by the manufacturer, whether directly or indirectly, in or in relation to the manufacture of final products and clearance of final products upto the place of removal and includes services used in relation to setting up, modernization, renovation or repairs of a factory, premises of provider of output service or an office relating to such factory or premises, advertisement or sales promotion, market research, storage upto the place of removal, procurement of inputs, activities relating to business, such as accounting, auditing, financing recruitment and quality control, coaching and training, computer networking, credit rating, share registry, and security, inward transportation of inputs or capital goods and outward transportation upto the place of removal;"
> 6. It is an admitted position that the instant case does not fall in sub-clause (i) and the issue is to be decided on the application of sub-clause (ii). Reading of the aforesaid provision makes it clear that those services are included which are used by the manufacturer, whether directly or indirectly, in or in relation to the manufacture of final products and clearance of final products 'upto the place of removal'.
> 7. It may be relevant to point out here that the original definition of 'input service' contained in Rule 2(l) of the Rules, 2004 used the expression 'from the place of removal'. As per the said definition, service used by the manufacturer of clearance of final products 'from the place of removal' to the warehouse or customer's place etc., was exigible for Cenvat Credit. This stands finally decided in Civil Appeal No. 11710 of 2016 (Commissioner of Central Excise Belgaum v. M/s. Vasavadatta Cements Ltd.) vide judgment dated January 17, 2018. However, vide amendment carried out in the aforesaid Rules in the year 2008, which became effective from March 1, 2008, the word 'from' is replaced by the word 'upto'. Thus, it is only 'upto the place of removal' that service is treated as input service. This amendment has changed the entire scenario. The benefit which was admissible even beyond the place of removal now gets terminated at the place of removal and doors to the cenvat credit of input tax paid gets closed at that place. This credit cannot travel therefrom. It becomes clear from the bare reading of this amended Rule, which applies to the period in question that the Goods Transport Agency service used for the purpose of outward transportation of goods, i.e. from the factory to customer's premises, is not covered within the ambit of Rule 2(l)(i) of Rules, 2004. Whereas the word 'from' is the indicator of starting point, the expression 'upto' signifies the terminating point, putting an end to the transport journey. We, therefore, find that the Adjudicating Authority was right in interpreting Rule 2(l) in the following manner:

> "... The input service has been defined to mean any service used by the manufacturer whether directly or indirectly and also includes, interalia, services used in relation to inward transportation of inputs or export goods and outward transportation upto the place of removal. The two clauses in the definition of 'input services' take care to circumscribe input credit by stating that service used in relation to the clearance from the place of removal and service used for outward transportation upto the place of removal are to be treated as input service. The first clause does not mention transport service in particular. The second clause restricts transport service credit upto the place of removal. When these two clauses are read together, it becomes clear that transport services credit cannot go beyond transport upto the place of removal. The two clauses, the one dealing with general provision and other dealing with a specific item, are not to be read disjunctively so as to bring about conflict to defeat the laws' scheme. The purpose of interpretation is to find harmony and reconciliation among the various provisions.
> 15. Credit availability is in regard to 'inputs'. The credit covers duty paid on input materials as well as tax paid on services, used in or in relation to the manufacture of the 'final product'. The final products, manufactured by the assessee in their factory premises and once the final products are fully manufactured and cleared from the factory premises, the question of utilization of service does not arise as such services cannot be considered as used in relation to the manufacture of the final product. Therefore, extending the credit beyond the point of removal of the final product on payment of duty would be contrary to the scheme of Cenvat Credit Rules. The main clause in the definition states that the service in regard to which credit of tax is sought, should be used in or in relation to clearance of the final products from the place of removal. The definition of input services should be read as a whole and should not be fragmented in order to avail ineligible credit. Once the clearances have taken place, the question of granting input service stage credit does not arise. Transportation is an entirely different activity from manufacture and this position remains settled by the judgment of Honorable Supreme Court in the cases of Bombay Tyre International 1983 (14) ELT = 2002-TIOL-374-SC-CX-LB, Indian Oxygen Ltd. 1988 (36) ELT 723 SC = 2002-TIOL-88-SC-CX and Baroda Electric Meters 1997

(94) ELT 13 SC = 2002-TIOL-96-SC-CX-LB. The post removal transport of manufactured goods is not an input for the manufacturer. Similarly, in the case of M/s. Ultratech Cements Ltd. v. CCE, Bhatnagar 2007 (6) STR 364 (Tri) = 2007-TIOL-429-CESTAT-AHM, it was held that after the final products are cleared from the place of removal, there will be no scope of subsequent use of service to be treated as input. The above observations and views explain the scope of relevant provisions clearly, correctly and in accordance with the legal provisions."

8. The aforesaid order of the Adjudicating Authority was upset by the Commissioner (Appeals) principally on the ground that the Board in its Circular dated August 23, 2007 had clarified the definition of 'place of removal' and the three conditions contained therein stood satisfied insofar as the case of the respondent is concerned, i.e. (i) regarding ownership of the goods till the delivery of the goods at the purchaser's door step; (ii) seller bearing the risk of or loss or damage to the goods during transit to the destination and; (iii) freight charges to be integral part of the price of the goods. This approach of the Commissioner (Appeals) has been approved by the CESTAT as well as by the High Court. This was the main argument advanced by the learned counsel for the respondent supporting the judgment of the High Court.

9. We are afraid that the aforesaid approach of the Courts below is clearly untenable for the following reasons:

10. In the first instance, it needs to be kept in mind that Board's Circular dated August 23, 2007 was issued in clarification of the definition of 'input service' as existed on that date i.e. it related to unamended definition. Relevant portion of the said circular is as under:

"ISSUE: Up to what stage a manufacturer/consignor can take credit on the service tax paid on goods transport by road?

COMMENTS: This issue has been examined in great detail by the CESTAT in the case of M/s Gujarat Ambuja Cements Ltd. vs CCE, Ludhiana [2007 (6) STR 249 Tri-D] = 2007-TIOL-429-CESTAT-AHM. In this case, CESTAT has made the following observations:-

"the post sale transport of manufactured goods is not an input for the manufacturer/consignor. The two clauses in the definition of 'input services' take care to circumscribe input credit by stating that service used in relation to the clearance from the place of removal and service used for outward transportation upto the place of removal are to be treated as input service. The first clause does not mention transport service in particular. The second clause restricts transport service credit upto the place of removal. When these two clauses are read together, it becomes clear that transport service credit cannot go beyond transport upto the place of removal. The two clauses, the one dealing with general provision and other dealing with a specific item, are not to be read disjunctively so as to bring about conflict to defeat the laws' scheme. The purpose of interpretation is to find harmony and reconciliation among the various provisions". Similarly, in the case of M/s Ultratech Cements Ltd vs CCE Bhavnagar - 2007-TOIL-429-CESTAT-AHM, it was held that after the final products are cleared from the place of removal, there will be no scope of subsequent use of service to be treated as input. The above observations and views explain the scope of the relevant provisions clearly, correctly and in accordance with the legal provisions. In conclusion, a manufacturer / consignor can take credit on the service tax paid on outward transport of goods up to the place of removal and not beyond that.

8.2 In this connection, the phrase 'place of removal' needs determination taking into account the facts of an individual case and the applicable provisions. The phrase 'place of removal' has not been defined in CENVAT Credit Rules. In terms of sub-rule (t) of rule 2 of the said rules, if any words or expressions are used in the CENVAT Credit Rules, 2004 and are not defined therein but are defined in the Central Excise Act, 1944 or the Finance Act, 1994, they shall have the same meaning for the CENVAT Credit Rules as assigned to them in those Acts. The phrase 'place of removal' is defined under section 4 of the Central Excise Act, 1944. It states that,-

"place of removal" means-

(i) a factory or any other place or premises of production or manufacture of the excisable goods ;

(ii) a warehouse or any other place or premises wherein the excisable goods have been permitted to be stored without payment of duty ;

(iii) a depot, premises of a consignment agent or any other place or premises from where the excisable goods are to be sold after their clearance from the factory;

from where such goods are removed."
It is, therefore, clear that for a manufacturer /consignor, the eligibility to avail credit of the service tax paid on the transportation during removal of excisable goods would depend upon the place of removal as per the definition. In case of a factory gate sale, sale from a non-duty paid warehouse, or from a duty paid depot (from where the excisable goods are sold, after their clearance from the factory), the determination of the 'place of removal' does not pose much problem. However, there may be situations where the manufacturer /consignor may claim that the sale has taken place at the destination point because in terms of the sale contract /agreement (i) the ownership of goods and the property in the goods remained with the seller of the goods till the delivery of the goods in acceptable condition to the purchaser at his door step; (ii) the seller bore the risk of loss of or damage to the goods during transit to the destination; and (iii) the freight charges were an integral part of the price of goods. In such cases, the credit of the service tax paid on the transportation up to such place of sale would be admissible if it can be established by the claimant of such credit that the sale and the transfer of property in goods (in terms of the definition as under section 2 of the Central Excise Act, 1944 as also in terms of the provisions under the Sale of Goods Act, 1930) occurred at the said place."

11. As can be seen from the reading of the aforesaid portion of the circular, the issue was examined after keeping in mind judgments of CESTAT in Gujarat Ambuja Cement Ltd. and M/s. Ultratech Cement Ltd. Those judgments, obviously, dealt with unamended Rule 2(l) of Rules, 2004. The three conditions which were mentioned explaining the 'place of removal' as defined under Section 4 of the Act, there is no quarrel upto this stage. However, the important aspect of the matter is that Cenvat Credit is permissible in respect of 'input service' and the Circular relates to the unamended regime. Therefore, it cannot be applied after amendment in the definition of 'input service' which brought about a total change. Now, the definition of 'place of removal' and the conditions which are to be satisfied have to be in the context of 'upto' the place of removal. It is this amendment which has made the entire difference. That aspect is not dealt with in the said Board's circular, nor it could be.

12. Secondly, if such a circular is made applicable even in respect of post amendment cases, it would be violative of Rule 2(l) of Rules, 2004 and such a situation cannot be countenanced.

13. The upshot of the aforesaid discussion would be to hold that Cenvat Credit on goods transport agency service availed for transport of goods from place of removal to buyer's premises was not admissible to the respondent. Accordingly, this appeal is allowed, judgment of the High Court is set aside and the Order-in-Original dated August 22, 2011 of the Assessing Officer is restored."

8. In view of above legal position already decided by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, Cenvat Credit on GTA service availed by the appellant for outward transportation of their final products from the place of removal to the buyer's premises is not admissible w.e.f. 01.04.2008. The period involved in this case is from November-2015 to March-2017, and hence, Cenvat credit of Service Tax paid on GTA for outward transportation of the final products cannot be allowed. The reliance placed upon Hon'ble CESTAT's orders and CBEC Circulars is not relevant now / in this case and has to be considered per incuriam in the light of the aforesaid judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of M/s. Ultratech Cement Ltd.

9. Regarding penalty imposed under Rule 15(1) of CCR,2004 read with Section 11AC(1) of the Act, I find that this is case of periodical demand raised by the Department and there is no allegation of suppression of facts with intent to evade payment of duty or fraudulently availment of Cenvat credit by the appellant and there is no evidence to that effect since disputed Cenvat credit has been shown by the appellant in their statutory returns filed with the Department. In my considered view, therefore, the issue involved in this case is of interpretation of the place of removal. I, therefore, do not see any reason to impose penalty under Section 11AC(1) of the Act and to uphold penalty of Rs. 4,77,496/- imposed upon the appellant and hence, penalty imposed is required to be set aside. I rely on the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of CCE, Jaipur Vs. Shree Rajasthan Syntex Ltd. reported as 2015 (318) ELT 626 (SC) wherein in similar set of the facts, penalty has been set aside holding as under :-

> "4. We may state here that the period involved is November 1996 to July, 2001. Show cause notice in this behalf, as noted above, was issued on 26-11-2001. The valuation of the excisable goods has to be in terms of Section 4 of the Central Excise Act, 1944. The said Section was amended in the year 2000 which amendment came into effect on 1-7-2000. The legal position relating to identical sales tax incentives Scheme which would prevail in view of the unamended provision as well as amended provision, came up for consideration before this Court in Commissioner of Central Excise, Jaipur-II v. Super Syncotex (India Ltd.) - 2014 (301) E.L.T. 273 (S.C.). This Court took the view, after analysing the provision of Section 4 which provided prior to the amendment, that the assessee would be entitled to claim deductions towards sales tax from the assessable value and sales tax incentive which is retained by the assessee namely 75% sales tax amount in this case. The Court also held that this position changed after the amendment in Section 4 with effect from 1-7-2000 and in arriving "the transaction value" the amount of 75% which was retained by the assessee, will be included. As per the aforesaid decision, the assessee/respondent herein will not be liable to pay any excise duty on the sales tax amount which was retained under the Incentive Scheme up to 30th June, 2000. However, this component of sales tax which was retained by the assessee after 1-7-2000 shall be includible in arriving at the transaction value and sales tax shall be paid thereon.
> 5. Insofar as the question of extended period of limitation is concerned, we have gone through the order of the Commissioner and are of the opinion that he has rightly held that the extended period of limitation as per the proviso of Section 11A(1) of the Central Excise Act, 1944 would be applicable in the given circumstances.*
>
> 6. However, we are of the opinion that in a case like the present one, where the legal position and interpretation of unamended Section 4 and the position after the amendment in the said provision with effect from 1-7-2000 was in a fluid state, it would not be appropriate to levy the penalty.*
>
> 7. In the aforesaid circumstances the present appeals are allowed in part by sustaining the Commissioner's Order-in-Original passed on 10-3-2003 insofar as it relates to the period from 1-7-2000 to July 2001 but the penalty is set aside. However, there shall be no order as to costs."*

[Emphasis supplied]

10. In view of above, I uphold the impugned order confirming demand of wrongly availed Cenvat Credit on outward transportation of their final products along with interest, however, penalty imposed under Rule 15(1) of CCR, 2004 read with Section 11AC of the Act is set aside and the appeal is allowed to this extent.

११. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है ।

11. The appeal filed by the appellant is disposed off in above terms.
