:: ORDER IN APPEAL ::

M/s. Kerry Indev Logistics Pvt. Ltd., Survey No. 169/36, Village Dhrub, Taluka Mundra, District – Kutch, Adani Free Trade Warehousing Zone, Mundra (Kutch) (hereinafter referred to as 'appellant') filed present appeal against Order-In-Original No. 27/Ref/AC/RB/Mundra/2017-18 dated 29.11.2017 (hereinafter referred to as "the impugned order") passed by the Assistant Commissioner, CGST Division, Mundra (Kutch) (hereinafter referred to as "the lower adjudicating authority").

2. The brief facts of the case are that the appellant filed refund claim of Rs. 25,26,850/- on 25.05.2017 for service tax paid towards construction service received by them for authorized operations in SEZ under Notification No. 12/2013-ST dated 1.7.2013. Deficiency memo was issued to the appellant vide letter dated 2.6.2017 which was complied with by the appellant vide their letter dated 26.7.2017. On scrutiny it is found that Bill No. 13 submitted by the appellant is not invoice and only statement of advance, hence, query memo dated 23.8.2017, was again issued to the appellant, who vide their letter dated 23.8.2017 submitted that Bill No. 13 was statement of accounts for advance received by the service provider from the appellant; that advance of Rs. 2 Crores and service tax of Rs. 12,00,000/- thereon was paid to the service provider as per work order dated 5.5.2016 which was finally settled by the service provider vide their Invoice Nos. 18 to 23, 33, 41 & 42. The lower adjudicating authority vide impugned order sanctioned refund of Rs. 13,26,850/- but rejected refund of service tax of Rs. 12,00,000/- for the reason that refund is not admissible in view of procedure prescribed in Rule 4A of the Service Tax Rules, 1994 (hereinafter referred to as "the Rules").

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order, the appellant has preferred present appeal, inter-alia, on the grounds that all the documents as required under Notification No. 12/2013-ST dated 1.7.2013 were produced to the satisfaction of the lower adjudicating authority along with Chartered Accountant's certificate certifying that service tax has been paid by the service provider into the Government account and also submitted copy of Challans; that the lower adjudicating authority had not called for any other document to substantiate the transaction; that the lower adjudicating authority has erred in considering Bill No. 13 as statement of advance and rejecting refund of service tax of Rs. 12,00,000/- charged and Bill satisfied all the requirement of Rule 4A of the Rules; that it was proved to the satisfaction of the lower adjudicating authority by submitting all related invoices no. 18 to 23, 33, 41 & 42 under which services were received for which the advance payment was made.

4. Personal hearing in the matter was attended by Shri Anuj Shah, Chartered Accountant who reiterated the grounds of appeal and submitted written submission stating that the disputed Bill has all required details and hence, impugned order is not correct; that the Bill has all particulars as prescribed under Rule 4A of the Rules; that Bill No. 13 dated 22.8.2016 is nothing but invoice only; that on query that it is statement of account and co-relation is required for the service to be provided/has been provided, he requested time to make additional submissions.

4.1 The appellant in their additional written submissions has submitted details of invoices against which advance of Rs. 2 Crores was paid by them to the service provider, which was adjusted along with copy of all these invoices and submitted that the service provider has not charged service tax after issuance of Bill No. 23 since Form A-2 was issued in favour of the service provider with effect from 24.11.2016; that the service provider has issued an invoice stating receipt of advance money which contained all the particulars as is mentioned in Rule 4A of the Rules; that the appellant has paid the service tax against the advance money paid to the service provider and fulfilled all conditions of claiming refund of service tax so paid as per Notification No. 12/2013-ST dated 1.7.2013.

Findings:

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, the impugned order, grounds of appeal and submissions made by the appellant. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is as to whether the appellant is eligible for refund of service tax of Rs. 12,00,000/- paid against Bill No. 13 dated 22.8.2016 issued by the service provider stating statement of accounts for advance received towards service agreed to be provided for authorized operations in SEZ in view of Notification No. 12/2013-ST dated 1.7.2013 or not.

6. The lower adjudicating authority has held that refund of Rs. 12,00,000/- is not admissible in view of procedure/manners prescribed in Rule 4A of the Rules whereas the appellant contended that Bill No. 13 is an invoice and it satisfies all requirements of Rule 4A of the Rules. I would like to produce relevant part of Rule 4A of the Rules, which reads as under: -

RULE 4A: Taxable service to be provided or credit to be distributed on invoice, bill or challan. —

(1) Every person providing taxable service shall, not later than thirty days from the date of completion of such taxable service or receipt of any payment towards the value of such taxable service, whichever is earlier, issue an invoice, a bill or, as the case may be, a challan signed by such person or a person authorized by him in respect of such taxable service provided or agreed to be provided and such invoice, bill or, as the case may be, challan shall be serially numbered and shall contain the following, namely :-

- (i) the name, address and the registration number of such person;*
- (ii) the name and address of the person receiving taxable service;*
- (iii) description and value of taxable service provided or agreed to be provided; and*
- (iv) the service tax payable thereon.*

7. From the above, it is clear that the person providing taxable service is required to issue an invoice, bill or challan, as the case may be within thirty days of receipt of advance towards taxable service agreed to be provided and such invoice, bill or challan shall be serially numbered and shall contain name, address and the registration number of such person; name and address of the person receiving taxable service; description and value of taxable service agreed to be provided and service tax payable thereon. In the present case, the appellant made advance payment of Rs. 2 Crores and also paid service tax of Rs. 12,00,000/- during June, 2016 and July, 2016 towards construction service agreed to be provided by the service provider in terms of Work Order dated 5.5.2016 awarded to the service provider. It has been specifically mentioned in the work order that advance of Rs. 2 Crores will be issued along with work order and the advance will be deducted on a pro-rata basis from each running bill at 23% of the value of Bill. The service provider in turn issued Bill No. 13 dated 22.8.2016 acknowledging receipt of advance amount along with service tax which contained all required particulars as stipulated in Rule 4A of the Rules. I find that receipt of the specified taxable service for authorized operations in SEZ and payment of service tax by the appellant to the service provider are not under dispute. Hence, I find that the appellant cannot be deprived of substantial benefit of refund of service tax provided under Notification No. 12/2013-ST dated 1.7.2013. The appellant has also provided details of Gross Taxable value charged by the service provider towards construction of warehouse within SEZ area and the advance amount adjusted on pro-rata basis @ 23% of gross taxable value under subsequent Invoice Nos. 18 to 23, 33, 41 & 42 and also furnished copy of these invoices to substantiate their claim that advance amount of Rs. 2 Crores paid vide Bill No. 23 dated 22.8.2016 was adjusted against payment made against above mentioned subsequent invoices. Hence, I find that the appellant has established co-relation of advance amount of Rs. 2 Crore paid along with Service Tax of Rs. 12,00,000/- in relation to construction of warehouse within SEZ area. The construction of warehouse within SEZ area has not been disputed by the department at any stage. Therefore, I am of the considered view that the appellant is entitled to get refund of service tax of Rs. 12,00,000/- under Notification No. 12/2013-ST dated 1.7.2013.

8. In view of above, I set aside the impugned order and allow the appeal filed by the appellant with consequential relief, if any.

९. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

9. The appeal filed by the appellant is disposed off in above terms.
