:: ORDER-IN-APPEAL ::

M/s. Shanti Structure Pvt. Ltd., Rajkot (hereinafter referred to as "Appellant") filed appeal No. V2/94/Raj/2020 against letter F.No. V/18-67/Ref/2018-19 dated 11.8.2020 (hereinafter referred to as 'impugned letter') passed by the Dy. Commissioner, Central GST Division-II, Rajkot (hereinafter referred to as 'refund sanctioning authority').

2. The brief facts of the case are that the Appellant had filed 10 refund claims on 9.11.2016 before the Asst. Commissioner, Service Tax Division, Rajkot for refund of service tax paid by them on specified service, pursuant to Section 102 of the Finance Act, 2016, which granted retrospective exemption from service tax for construction service provided to Government, Government authorities and local self Government authorities. The said refund claims were rejected by the refund sanctioning authority. The Appellant challenged the rejection of refund orders before the then Commissioner(Appeals), Rajkot, who vide his Order-in-Appeal No. RAJ-EXCUS-000-APP-89 TO 100-2018-19 dated 18.5.2018 allowed the appeals with consequential relief.

2.1 Pursuant to aforesaid Order-in-Appeal, the Appellant vide letter dated 4.6.2018 requested the refund sanctioning authority to sanction refund amount along with interest. The refund sanctioning authority sanctioned refund of Rs. 1,08,95,874/- on 4.9.2018 to the Appellant but did not sanction interest.

2.2. The Appellant vide letters dated 13.11.2019, 15.1.2020 and 3.7.2020 requested the refund sanctioning authority to sanction interest on delayed sanctioned of refund under Section 11BB of the Central Excise Act, 1944. The refund sanctioning authority vide impugned letter rejected the request of the Appellant for grant of interest under Section 11BB of the Act on the ground that there was no delay in payment of principal refund amount.

3. Aggrieved, the Appellant has filed the present appeal, inter alia, on following grounds:

(i) The refund sanctioning authority has erred in observing that they had not filed complete refund application on 05.06.2018 and the deficit documents were submitted vide letter dated 31.08.2018 inasmuch vide letter dated 31.08.2018, the appellant had only submitted a copy of cancelled cheque based on which

lower authority had sanctioned refund of principal amount on 04.09.2018 and hence, there is no legal justification to deny interest for the period from 09.02.2016 (date of expiry of three months from the date of filing of refund applications) to 15.09.2018 (date of receipt of principal amount refunded by lower authority) under the garb of delayed submission of deficit documents

(ii) That the lower authority has erred in declining to comply by the provisions of Section 11BB of the Central Excise Act,1944 on the grounds that refund can be sanctioned only after verification of payment particulars, no dues certificate from jurisdictional Range Superintendent and principles of unjust enrichment; that such grounds have no bearing on the provisions of Section 11BB of the Central Excise Act,1944 for payment of interest on delayed refund. Hence, this does not constitute any lawful and valid reason or justification to deny interest for the period between the date of expiry of three months from the date of filing of refund applications and the date when the amount covered by refund application is refunded.

(iii) That the grounds canvassed by the lower authority for denying the interest tantamount to complete disregard of the legal provisions contained in Section 11BB of the Central Excise Act, 1944 as made applicable to Finance Act, 1994 and deserve to be quashed and set aside and orders for payment of interest payable to appellant in terms of Section 1 13B of Central Excise Act,1944 deserve to be passed.

4. The Appellant waived the opportunity of personal hearing as per column No. 6(A) of the appeal Memorandum ST-4 and requested to pass decision based on the submissions made in appeal memorandum. I, therefore, take up this appeal for decision vide this order.

5. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, the impugned letter and grounds raised in appeal memorandum. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the Appellant is eligible for interest on delayed sanctioned of refund under Section 11BB of the Central Excise Act, 1944 or not.

6. On going through the records, I find that the Appellant had filed refund claims on 9.11.2016 for refund of service tax paid by them pursuant to retrospective exemption granted vide Section 102 of the Finance Act, 2016. The refund claims were rejected by the refund sanctioning authority but the Appellant succeeded before the Commissioner(Appeals), Rajkot, who allowed their appeals with consequential relief vide Order-in-Appeal dated 18.5.2018. Pursuant to favourable order, the Appellant requested refund sanctioning authority to sanction refund along with interest. The refund sanctioning authority sanctioned refund of service tax on 4.9.2018 but did not sanction interest. The Appellant took up the matter with refund sanctioning authority for payment of interest on delayed sanctioned of refund under Section 11BB of the Central Excise Act, 1944. The refund sanctioning authority rejected their claim for interest vide the impugned letter on the grounds that complete refund application was not filed on 5.6.2018 and deficient documents were submitted vide letter dated 31.8.2018 and that refund claims were sanctioned on 4.9.2018 and hence, there was no delay in payment of refund amount.

6.1 The Appellant has contested that the refund sanctioning authority has erred in observing that they had not filed complete refund application on 05.06.2018 and the deficit documents were submitted vide letter dated 31.08.2018 inasmuch vide letter dated 31.08.2018, they had only submitted a copy of cancelled cheque based on which refund was sanctioned and hence, there is no legal justification to deny interest for the period from 09.02.2016 (date of expiry of three months from the date of filing of refund applications) to 15.09.2018 (date of receipt of principal amount refunded by refund sanctioning authority) under the garb of delayed submission of deficit documents.

7. I find it is pertinent to examine the provisions of Section 11BB of the Act, which are reproduced as under:

“SECTION 11BB. Interest on delayed refunds. — If any duty ordered to be refunded under sub-section (2) of section 11B to any applicant is not refunded within three months from the date of receipt of application under sub-section (1) of that section, there shall be paid to that applicant interest at such rate, [not below five per cent] and not exceeding thirty per cent per annum as is for the time being fixed [by the Central Government, by Notification in the Official Gazette], on such duty from the date immediately after the expiry of three months from the date of receipt of such application till the date of refund of such duty :

Provided that where any duty ordered to be refunded under sub-section (2) of section 11B in respect of an application under sub-section (1) of that section made before the date on which the Finance Bill, 1995 receives the assent of the President, is not refunded within three months from such date, there shall be paid to the applicant interest under this section from the date immediately after three months from such date, till the date of refund of such duty.”

7. I find that it is not under dispute that the refund claims were filed on 9.11.2016, which were sanctioned on 4.9.2018 pursuant to Order-in-Appeal dated 18.5.2018. The provisions of Section 11BB of the Act mandates payment of interest after expiry of three months from the date of receipt of refund application to date of sanction of refund. In the case on hand, the refund was not granted within 3 months from the date of receipt of refund claims and hence, the Appellant is eligible for interest under Section 11BB of the Act for the period after expiry of three months from date of refund applications to date of sanction of refund claims. I rely on the judgement passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ranbaxy Laboratories Ltd reported as 2011 (273) ELT 3 (S.C.), wherein it has been held that,

“9. It is manifest from the afore-extracted provisions that Section 11BB of the Act comes into play only after an order for refund has been made under Section 11B of the Act. Section 11BB of the Act lays down that in case any duty paid is found refundable and if the duty is not refunded within a period of three months from the date of receipt of the application to be submitted under sub-section (1) of Section 11B of the Act, then the applicant shall be paid interest at such rate, as may be fixed by the Central Government, on expiry of a period of three months from the date of receipt of the application. The Explanation appearing below Proviso to Section 11BB introduces a deeming fiction that where the order for refund of duty is not made by the Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise or Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise but by an Appellate Authority or the Court, then for the purpose of this Section the order made by such higher Appellate Authority or by the Court shall be deemed to be an order made under sub-section (2) of Section 11B of the Act. It is clear that the Explanation has nothing to do with the postponement of the date from which interest becomes payable under Section 11BB of the Act. Manifestly, interest under Section 11BB of the Act becomes payable, if on an expiry of a period of three months from the date of receipt of the application for refund, the amount claimed is still not refunded. Thus, the only interpretation of Section 11BB that can be arrived at is that interest under the said Section becomes payable on the expiry of a period of three months from the date of receipt of the application under sub-section (1) of Section 11B of the Act and that the said Explanation does not have any bearing or connection with the date from which interest under Section 11BB of the Act becomes payable.

14. At this stage, reference may be made to the decision of this Court in Shreeji Colour Chem Industries (supra), relied upon by the Delhi High Court. It is evident from a bare reading of the decision that insofar as the reckoning of the period for the purpose of payment of interest under Section 11BB of the Act is concerned, emphasis has been laid on the date of receipt of application for refund. In that case, having noted that application by the assessee requesting for refund, was filed before the Assistant Commissioner on 12th January 2004, the Court directed payment of Statutory interest under the said Section from 12th April 2004 i.e. after the expiry of a period of three months from the date of receipt of the application. Thus, the said decision is of no avail to the revenue.

15. In view of the above analysis, our answer to the question formulated in para (1) supra is that the liability of the revenue to pay interest under Section 11BB of the Act commences from the date of expiry of three months from the date of receipt of application for refund under Section 11B(1) of the Act and not on the expiry of the said period from the date on which order of refund is made."

(Emphasis supplied)

8. I find that the refund sanctioning authority has observed in the impugned letter that complete refund application was not filed on 5.6.2018 and deficient documents were submitted vide letter dated 31.8.2018 and that refund was sanctioned within three months from date of receipt of complete refund claim. I do not comprehend the reasoning adopted by the refund sanctioning authority. If any documents were found deficient, the refund sanctioning authority ought to have issued deficiency memo at the time of receipt of refund claims on 9.11.2016 and certainly not at the time of processing refund claims pursuant to Order-in-Appeal dated 18.5.2018. I find that the refund sanctioning authority has observed that the Appellant submitted deficient documents on 31.8.2018. I find that the Appellant had submitted only a copy of cancelled cheque vide letter dated 31.8.2018 to the refund sanctioning authority as per records available in appeal memorandum. If that be the case, the refund sanctioning authority has erred in considering non supply of cancelled cheque as deficient document, since cancelled cheque is required for making payment of refund amount and the same is not required for processing refund claims. The stand taken by the refund sanctioning authority to deny legitimate interest under Section 11BB of the Act is erroneous and beyond any rationale.

8.1 I find that the then Commissioner(Appeals), CGST, Rajkot, while holding that the Appellant was eligible to refund of service tax, has given findings at para 6 of the Order-in-Appeal No. RAJ-EXCUS-000-APP-89 TO 100-2018-19 dated 22.5.2018 that the Appellant had submitted the required and relevant documents along with refund claims. The relevant portion is reproduced as under:

"6. The lower adjudicating authority has rejected refund claims on the ground of non submission of the relevant documents. I find that the appellant had submitted copy of agreement letter of award establishing that the services were provided to the Government, Government authorities and local government authorities, copy of relevant R.A. Bills issued during 01.04.2015 to 29.02.2016, copy of GAR-7 challans evidencing payment of 'service tax, 'Work-sheet establishing correlation of payment particulars of service tax for the work undertaken by appellant, certificate of chartered accountant certifying that the incidence of service tax has not been passed on to the service receivers or to any other person, copy of audited balance sheet for FY 2015-16 showing amount as service tax 'receivable' In 'current assets' copy of ST-3 returns showing details of service undertaken payment of service tax made by the appellant during FY 2015-16. etc. Hence, I find that appellant has submitted the required and relevant documents along with their refund claims."

8.2 In view of above, it is beyond doubt that the Appellant had submitted complete refund claims on 9.11.2016 and hence, there was no reason for the refund sanctioning authority to not grant interest for delayed sanctioned of refund under Section 11BB of the Act.

9. In view of above, I set aside the impugned letter and allow the appeal.

10. अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।

10. The appeal filed by the Appellant stand disposed off in above terms.
