:: ORDER IN APPEAL ::

M/s Anand Infrastructure, 101, Shree Villa, Ram Park main road, Opp. Atmiya College, Kalawad Road, Rajkot-360005. (hereinafter referred to as 'the appellant') filed the present appeal against OIO/Letter No. V/18-156/ST/REF/2016-17 dated 28.12.2018 (hereinafter referred to as the 'impugned letter') passed by the Assistant Commissioner, GST & Central Excise, Division, Rajkot-I (hereinafter referred to as the 'refund sanctioning authority').

2. The brief facts of the case are that the appellant had filed a refund claim of service tax to the tune of Rs. 26,60,940/- on the grounds that they are providing services in the nature of construction services, works contract service to various Government and local authorities etc. These works were covered under Sr. No. 12 of the Notification No. 25/2012-Service Tax dated 20.06.2012. The said exemption for payment of Service Tax was withdrawn on certain services vide Notification No. 06/2015-ST w.e.f 01.04.2015. The appellant paid service tax on such activities on or after 01.04.2015. The exemption withdrawn was restored vide Notification No. 09/2016-ST dated 01.03.2016. The said Notification read with Section 102 of the Finance Act, 1994 enabled them to file refund claim for service tax paid during the period from 01.04.2015 to 29.02.2016 and accordingly they filed the refund claim. The said refund claim was rejected vide OIO No. 27/ST/REF/2017 dated 25.01.2017. Aggrieved the appellant filed an appeal before the Commissioner (Appeal), Central Excise, Rajkot who vide OIA No. RAJ-EXCUS-000-APP-055-2018-19 dated 20.04.2018 set aside the OIO and allowed the appeal filed by the appellant. The refund sanctioning authority vide OIO No. R/53/ST/2018-19 dated 24.08.2018 sanctioned the refund claim amounting to Rs. 26,60,940/-. Since the refund sanctioning authority only granted refund of service tax and not interest on delayed service tax refund, the appellant vide letter dated 03.10.2018 requested to grant interest on the delayed refund of service tax. The refund sanctioning authority vide the impugned letter rejected the claim of refund of interest.

3. Aggrieved, the appellant filed the present appeal on the following grounds:

(i) that the appellant has made application for service tax refund on 09.11.2016 and they received the service tax refund through NEFT on

24.08.2018 i.e after the expiry of three months from the date of receipt of application under sub-section (1) of Section 11B of Central Excise Act which is also made applicable for service tax by virtue of Section 83 of the Finance Act; that they are eligible for interest on delayed refund of service tax u/s 11 BB of the Act; that they refer to Circular No. 670/61/2002-CX dated 01.10.2002 regarding non-payment of interest on delayed payment of refund/rebate claims and Notification No. 67/2003-CE(NT) dated 12.09.2013 wherein rate of interest 6% p.a has been notified for the purpose of Section 11 BB of the Act.

(ii) that the refund sanctioning authority has misinterpreted the provision of Section 11BB of the Act by calculating three months from the date of the refund claim made by the appellant after the Appellate Order and held that the service tax refund claim has been processed and sanctioned amount was credited to their account within the stipulated period of three months.

(iii) that in support of their claim they rely on the following judgments:

- Ranbaxy Laboratories Ltd. Vs Union Of India & Ors (Supreme Court of India) Civil Appeal No. 6823 of 2010, 7637 of 2009, 3088 of 2010.
- Rajasthan High Court in the case of J.K. Cement Works Vs Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise & Customs [2004(170)E.L.T 4]
- Union of India Vs U.P. Twiga Fiber Glass Ltd. 2009(243) E.L.T A27 (S.C.)
- Tata Chemicals Ltd. Vs Commissioner of Central Excise, Rajkot [2015-TIOL-240-CESTAT-AHM]
- Shree Balaji Aromatics (P.) Ltd. Vs Union Of India [(2014) 46 taxmann. com 5 (Allahabad)][(All-HC) [2014] 45 GST 695; 2014 ITL (ST) 372]

(iv) that they have requested to grant interest on refund calculated @ 6% from 10.02.2017 (after expiry of three months from the date of refund application i.e 09.11.2016 till 24.08.2018 (the date of payment of refund amount) as per Section 11 BB of the Central Excise Act, which is made applicable to Section 83 of the Finance Act.

4. In view of the principles of natural justice, personal hearing was granted on 27.09.2019(appellant requested for adjournment), 05.11.2019, 17.12.2019 and 03.01.2020, but the appellant did not appear for the personal hearing on any of the dates and nothing further was heard from the appellant. Therefore, I proceed to decide the case ex-parte on merit on the basis of records available on file.

5. I have gone through the records of the case, the impugned letter, the grounds of appeal and written submission filed by the appellant. The limited issue to be decided in the present issue is whether interest is payable on the amount of refund claimed by the appellant from the date of refund claimed by the appellant or from the date of duty ordered to be refunded.

6. Before evaluating the rival contentions, I would like to refer to the relevant provisions of the Section 11B of the Act which deals with claims for refund of duty. Relevant portion thereof reads as under:

"11B. Claim for refund of duty. - (1) Any person claiming refund of any duty of excise and interest, if any, paid on such duty may make an application for refund of such duty and interest if any, paid on such duty to the Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise or Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise before the expiry of one year from the relevant date in such form and manner as may be prescribed and the application shall be accompanied by such documentary or other evidence including the documents referred to in section 12A as the applicant may furnish to establish that the amount of duty of excise and interest, if any, paid on such duty in relation to which such refund is claimed was collected from or paid by him and the incidence of such duty and interest if any, paid on such duty had not been passed on by him to any other person :

Provided that where an application for refund has been made before the commencement of the Central Excise and Customs Laws (Amendment) Act, 1991, such application shall be deemed to have been made under this sub-section as amended by the Act and the same shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) as substituted by that Act :

Provided further that the limitation of one year shall not apply where any duty has been paid under protest.

(2) If, on receipt of any such application, the Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise or Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise is satisfied that the whole or any part of the duty of excise and interest, if any, paid on such duty paid by the applicant is refundable, he may make an order accordingly and the amount so determined shall be credited to the Fund :

Provided that the amount of duty of excise and interest, if any, paid on such duty of excise as determined by the Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise or Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise under the foregoing provisions of this sub-section shall, instead of being credited to the Fund, be paid to the applicant, if such amount is relatable to ---

- (a) rebate of duty of excise on excisable goods exported out of India or on excisable materials used in the manufacture of goods which are exported out of India;
- (b) unspent advance deposits lying in balance in the applicant's current account maintained with the Commissioner of Central Excise;
- (c) refund of credit of duty paid on excisable goods used as inputs in accordance with the rules made, or any notification issued, under this Act;
- (d) the duty of excise and interest, if any, paid on such duty paid by the manufacturer, if he had not passed on the incidence of such duty and interest, if any, paid on such duty to any other person;
- (e) the duty of excise and interest, if any, paid on such duty borne by the buyer, if he had not passed on the incidence of such duty and interest, if any, paid on such duty to any other person;
- (f) the duty of excise and interest, if any, paid on such duty borne by any other such class of applicants as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify :

Provided further that no notification under clause (f) of the first proviso shall be issued unless in the opinion of the Central Government, the incidence of duty and interest, if any, paid on such duty has not been passed on by the persons concerned to any other person.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any judgment, decree, order or direction of the Appellate Tribunal of any Court in any other provision of this Act or the rules made thereunder or any other law for the time being in force, no refund shall be made except as provided in sub-section (2).

Section 11BB, provisions, reads thus :

"11BB. Interest on delayed refunds. -

If any duty ordered to be refunded under sub-section (2) of section 11B to any applicant is not refunded within three months from the date of receipt of application under sub-section (1) of that section, there shall be paid to that applicant interest at such rate, not below five per cent and not exceeding thirty per cent per annum as is for the time being fixed by the Central Government, by Notification in the Official Gazette, on such duty from the date immediately after the expiry of three months from the date of receipt of such application till the date of refund of such duty :

Provided that where any duty ordered to be refunded under sub-section (2) of section 11B in respect of an application under sub-section (1) of that section made before the date on which the Finance Bill, 1995 receives the assent of the President, is not refunded within three months from such date, there shall be paid to the applicant interest under this section from the date immediately after three months from such date, till the date of refund of such duty.

Explanation : Where any order of refund is made by the Commissioner (Appeals), Appellate Tribunal or any Court against an order of the Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise, under sub-section (2) of section 11B, the order passed by the Commissioner (Appeals), Appellate Tribunal or, as the case may be, by the Court shall be deemed to be an order passed under the said sub-section (2) for the purposes of this section."

7. It is clear from the afore-extracted provisions that Section 11BB of the Act comes into play only after an order for refund has been made under Section 11B of the Act. Section 11BB of the Act lays down that in case any duty paid is found refundable and if the duty is not refunded within a period of three months from the date of receipt of the application to be submitted under sub-section (1) of Section 11B of the Act, then the applicant shall be paid interest at such rate, as may be fixed by the Central Government, on expiry of a period of three months from the date of receipt of the application. The Explanation appearing below Proviso to Section 11BB states that where the order for refund of duty is not made by the Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise or Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise but by an Appellate Authority or the Court, then for the purpose of this Section the order made by such higher Appellate Authority or by the Court shall be deemed to be an order made under sub-section (2) of Section 11B of the Act. It is clear that the Explanation has nothing to do with the postponement of the date from which interest becomes payable under Section 11BB of the Act. Therefore, interest under Section 11BB of the Act becomes payable, if on an expiry of a period of three months from the date of receipt of the application for refund, the amount claimed is still not refunded. Thus, the only interpretation of Section 11BB that can be arrived at is that interest under the said Section becomes payable on the expiry of a period of three months from the date of receipt of the application under sub-section (1) of Section 11B of the Act and that the said Explanation does not have any bearing or connection with the date from which interest under Section 11BB of the Act becomes payable.

In this regard, I draw my support from the Hon'ble Supreme Court's judgment in the case of (i) M/s Ranbaxy Laboratories Ltd. Vs Union of India decided on 21.10.2011 (ii) Union of India Vs Shreeji Colour Chem Industries decided on 15.09.2008.

8. I also find that the issue stands concluded in decision of the High Court of Rajasthan in the case of M/s J.K. Cement Works Vs Asst. Commissioner of Central Excise & Customs decided on 10.02.2001 as reported in 2004(170) E.L.T.4(Raj.)

"21. The perusal of Section 11B goes to show that it prescribed a period within which the amount of refund can be claimed by the applicant. It also prescribes three months from the date of application as the period within which such refund is to be paid. Consequence of not paying refund within three months of making such application under Section 11B is that the Revenue becomes liable to pay interest on amount of refund with effect from the expiry of three months from the date of application until date of actual payment. The liability to pay interest is not tagged with decision to pay interest but in case it is ultimately found to be payable liability is with effect from expiry of three months of the date of receipt of application required to be made under Section 11B(1). The rate of interest is to be prescribed by the Board and the interest is payable with effect from the date commencing from the expiry of three months from the date of receipt of such application till the refund of such duty.

33. A close reading of Section 11BB, which now governs the question relating to payment of interest on belated payment of interest, makes it clear that relevant date for the purpose of determination the liability to pay interest is not the determination under sub-section (2) of Section 11B to refund the amount to the applicant and not to be transferred to the Consumer Welfare Fund but the relevant date is to be determined with reference to date of application laying claim to refund. The non-payment of refund to the applicant claimant within three months from the date of such application or in the case governed by proviso to Section 11BB, non-payment within three months from the date of the commencement of Section 11BB brings in the starting point of liability to pay interest, notwithstanding the date on which decision has been rendered by the competent authority as to whether the amount is to be transferred to Welfare Fund or to be paid to the applicant.

37. Interest has been made payable with effect from the expiry of three months from the date of application made under Section 11B(1), in case where refund is required to be paid to such applicant as per orders passed under Section 11B(2). The making of application is not linked with adjudication about excess payment but is linked with payment of Duty.”

[Emphasis supplied]

9. Thus, it is evident from a bare reading of the above Section and decisions that insofar as the reckoning of the period for the purpose of payment of interest under Section 11BB of the Act is concerned, emphasis has been laid on the date of receipt of application for refund.

10. In view of the above analysis, the liability of the refund sanctioning authority to pay statutory rate of interest under Section 11BB of the Act commences from the date of expiry of three months from the date of receipt of application for refund under Section 11B(1) of the Act and not on the expiry of the said period from the date on which order of refund is made. I, therefore, set aside the impugned order/letter rejecting the interest claim and allow the appeal filed by the appellants.

11. The appellants have quoted many case laws and the ratio laid down in the said case laws are squarely applicable in the instant appeal.

११.१ अपीलकर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है ।

11.1 The appeal filed by the Appellant is disposed off as above.
